

The above composition follows from both our viewing of the film and our tour of some of the “off limits” areas of our campus, such as those within the food preparation areas and the “clean up” areas in one of our cafeterias.